

Remember!

When calculating your sum insured, make sure you select the full replacement value at today's cost and not what you may have paid for it at the time of purchase.

As jewellery and personal valuables have separate policy limitations, we recommend that you refer to your Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) to determine whether the level of cover is adequate.

Retain copies of your purchase receipt, valuations, instruction manuals etc. in a safe place to assist with settlement of your claim.
